

Candidate Contract

Permission to verify

1. The Candidate agrees to let Law Courts Center (the "Agent") verify the contents of their CV including speaking to their references.

Agency disclosure

2. The Candidate acknowledges that the Agent discloses that it is representing the Candidate in respect of their job search and will receive remuneration from the firm or corporate body and/or its employee or representative (the "Client") upon the Candidate's engagement by the Client.

Should the Candidate write the assessment test, the results will be provided to the Client only.

Assessment

3. The Agent is often requested by the Client to provide an assessment of the Candidate. To this end, the Agent administers written assessments which the Candidate may choose to take (the "Assessments"). The Assessments are graded and result in two evaluations: (1) a short classification of whether the Candidate is above average, average, or below average in proficiency for a particular job title (the "Classification"), and (2) a detailed report outlining the Candidate's proficiency broken down in terms of knowledge of the law and rules, procedural requirements, and other areas of evaluation, as appropriate to the Candidate's preferred job position (the "Report").

Should the Candidate write an Assessment, the Candidate may receive the results of their Classification upon request. The Candidate may receive a copy of their Assessment's Report for a fee of $1,000 (plus GST) provided that the Candidate keep the Report at all times confidential and may not use, discuss, or circulate the Report to any entity without the express advanced written consent of the Candidate's Agent, even if the Candidate's agency relationship with the Agent subsequently ends.

Permission to release the Candidate's information

4. The Candidate agrees to let the Agent present their CV and references and the Classification and Report of any Assessment taken by the Candidate to the Client.
